Show Rules

Proper boots with heels and approved helmets required.

Show attire not required, but neat, clean, and properly fitted clothing requested.

Show tack not required.

Show management will be the final authority as to complaints of any kind and its decisions are not contestable to any other body. Complaints must be registered and addressed prior to the end of the show.

In all classes, riders must attempt to follow all class requirements, as determined by the judge. Extended gaits may be included.

In all classes, riders may not stop and back on the rail nor interfere with other riders in any way. Doing so may result in dismissal from the class. The judge will excuse out-of-control and/or dangerous horses.

Walk/Trot horse/rider combinations may not cross-enter in other ridden classes.

Costume class entries may be ridden or lead.

General Information

Awards: Ribbons through 5th place in all classes. There is no entry fee for Championship classes, which are open to first and second place horses in qualifying classes.

The following high point awards will be offered:

Walk/Trot High Point & Reserve High Point
Novice High Point & Reserve High Point
Junior (12 & Under) High Point & Reserve High Point
Senior (13 & Over) High Point & Reserve High Point

Classes may be combined or split at the discretion of show management.

Special prizes will be given for the Most Undisciplined Horse in the Discipline Rail classes, Most Clumsy Horse in the Obstacle Course classes, and Goofiest Pair in the Pairs class.

Obstacle Course classes will run concurrent with games classes.

Concession stand will be open with snacks and refreshments during show hours.
